SOURCE OF FUNDS TO DISTRIBUTE

This case was reopened May 11, 1998 pursuant to a motion by the U. S. Trustee. Prior to December 19, 1996, Steven Adamson, counsel for the Debtors, entered pleas of guilty to an indictment concerning bankruptcy fraud and filing false tax returns. On December 19, 1996, a judgment was entered in this criminal case known as United States of America v. Steven A. Adamson, Case No. 1:96CR00032-001. Among other things, the judgment ordered Adamson to make restitution to the trustee in the amount of $12,250.00 of which this restitution relates to compensation paid by the Debtors to Adamson for services provided in the bankruptcy case.

PROPOSED DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS

From funds totaling $12,250.00 received by the trustee, it is proposed the trustee retain 8% fees for $907.41 and the balance of the funds totaling $11,342.59 be distributed to the unsecured creditors as evidenced by the attached schedule. This distribution does not include Internal Revenue Service as they have advised the trustee their claim in the bankruptcy has been resolved.

ORDERS

The trustee will present at the hearing an order allowing him to distribute funds and an order closing the case.

DATED This 27th day of March, 2001.
